NITIN SHAH'S RESIDENCE PROJECT

This residence is designed on a huge site of 40,000 sq.ft in Anand, Gujarat. The architectural layout of this house is inspired of doubly loaded aisle. Overall the house is designed under two heads public spaces and private spaces.

The courtyard has a dramatic play of light and shadow. This house is ornamented delicately with the minimal use of furniture and art effects. Each of the bedroom has a concrete wall in the interior, and a random pattern of oval is invented over the huge concrete walls on the exteriors and interiors as well. A beautiful circular window is provided to connect the home theater with the alluring lights of courtyard. The materials used for flooring are largely the breeds of kota stone with different finishes. ■
