PLAY WITH A MINIMALIST KITCHEN DESIGN

Many people design a stylish home but put the kitchen into a dark corner. A chic space demands a good looking yet utilitarian cook-room. And that's exactly what architect Dipen Gada has done in this 240-square-foot kitchen, located in a penthouse in Rajkot. Gada has used white to enhance the look of the space. Equipped with the latest in-built gadgets such as a silent chimney, microwave oven and fridge, it is a modular unit with soft closing drawers. The only mandate from the client was to make the kitchen as open and clutter free as possible; with good ventilation supporting Indian style cooking. Gada did that with a powerful chimney and a clean, straight line design.
